GREAT ASSEMBLY WILL OPEN WEEK FROM TOMORROW

PROGRAM FOR COMING CHAUTAUQUA STRONGEST FOR YEARS.

SUNDAY ATTRACTIONS ARE BIG

John Temple Graves, Wm. H. Taft and Clausen Are Booked For Sabbath.

Rock River Assembly opens Saturday, July 28th, with one of the best and most interesting and entertaining programs offered the public since the beginning of the institution.

This week many campers will be on the ground enjoying the park before the opening day. Dixon people are taking advantage of the park each day and evening and many pleasant picnic parties are being held there.

With all the excitement over the present great war, and hundreds of other equally important matters, local people are not losing interest in the opening of their Assembly.

Ticket Canvass Is On.

Ladies are selling tickets among the citizens of Dixon and they report that unusual interest is being taken in the Assembly and the ticket sale is coming up to the usual high mark. People are busy. Business is exceedingly good. Every one is more or less interested in the outcome of the great war, but in the face of all this they welcome the coming of the ticket sellers and are purchasing many season tickets.

Three Big Sundays.

The features this year are the programs for the three Sundays. John Temple Graves will be present the first Sunday and he is one of the most noted newspaper men in all the country.

Former President William Howard Taft will speak the second Sabbath day.

On the third and last Sunday, one of the world's greatest vocalists, Clausen, will render a program that will please the thousands who are in attendance.

GAME AT LEE CENTER

Lee Center's baseball team will play Sublette Sunday at Lee Center. Sublette has developed a good team this year and Lee Center expects to hustle some to keep up its good record. The probably battery for Lee Center is Shoemaker or Benney and Kreitzer; for Sublette, Malach and Bieber.

Women Of Dixon Can Help In Great Conservation Move Carry Own Parcels

"Carry your own parcels" is the request which comes from the Council of National Defense to the women of Illinois. "When you buy a spool of thread, a paper of pins or a set of needles to knit socks for soldiers, take them with you instead of taking up the time of a boy and horse to deliver them.

Further, the National Council is urging the merchants of all Illinois towns and cities—grocers as well as department store people—to refuse to make more than one delivery a day on each route. To do so will not only educate the patrons of retail houses in economy and order, but it will release men, vehicles and motive power for more important work. And men and motive power are very much in demand throughout the country.

The National Council requests that the rule for one delivery a day shall become effective on August 1st. It

REICHSTAG FOR PEACE BY VOTE

OF 214 TO 119

MAJORITY RESOLUTION ADOPTED IN THE CHAMBER YESTERDAY.

BELITTLE AMERICA'S PART

Chancellor Michaelis Says Germany Will Quit War With Honorable Peace.

(Associated Press Leased Wire) Copenhagen, July 20.—The reichstag yesterday adopted the majority peace resolution by a vote of 214 to 116, with 17 not voting. Chancellor Michaelis in his address said Germany would not continue the war a day longer if it could obtain a non-peaceable peace. America's intervention was not regarded with serious concern. The German fleet, particularly the submarines, would master the situation, he said.

(Associated Press Leased Wire) Copenhagen, July 20.—"Although," said Chancellor Michaelis in the reichstag yesterday, "English statesmen knew as shown by their blue book that the Russian mobilization would lead to war with Germany they addressed not a word of warning to Russia regarding military measures, while my predecessor in instructions July 29, 1914, to the ambassador at Vienna directed him to say that we willingly fulfil our duty as an ally, but must refuse to permit ourselves to be invoked in a world war through Austria-Hungary disregarding our counsels. The man who wishes to kindle a war does not write like this but a man who is laboring and has labored to the utmost for peace.

Forced to Seize Sword. "The concentration of the Russian army compelled Germany to seize the sword. There was no choice left to us. And what is true of the war itself is also true of our weapon, the submarine. We deny the warfare is contrary to international law and vote the right of humanity.

"I declare that the submarine war accomplished in the destruction of enemy tonnage what it should. It impairs England's economic life and the conduct of the war month so month in a growing degree, so it will not be possible to oppose the necessity for peace much longer.

"It is reported from the supreme army command that the military situation is very good.

Reckon Tonnage. "We look with serious concern upon the optimistic sentiment of the entire countries caused by America's intervention. It is easy to reckon how much tonnage is necessary to transport an army from America to Europe and how much tonnage is required to feed such an army.

"The burning question in our hearts, however, is how much longer the war is to last. The Germans wish to conclude peace as combatants who have successfully accomplished their purpose and proved themselves invincible. A condition of peace was the inviolability of Germany's territory. No parity was possible with the enemy demanding the cessation of German soil.

"We must, by means of understanding and in a spirit of give and take, guarantee conditions of the existence of the German empire upon the continent and over-seas."

WOMAN BACKS CAR THROUGH A WINDOW

MRS. FRED WAGNER REVERSED CAR INSTEAD OF GOING AHEAD

The plate glass window of the "Palmers" Restaurant was broken last night when an automobile driven by Mrs. Fred Wagner backed into the glass. Mrs. Wagner intended to go forward and pulled the reverse lever thus backing the car over the sidewalk and into the large glass before she could get the gear changed. Mr. Wagner, who was standing near, ran to the aid of his wife, taking hold of the steering wheel but was unable to stop the machine before the damage was done.

NON-HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT ELECTION

CO. SUPT. MILLER SETS SATURDAY, AUG. 4, AS DAY FOR VOTE.

THREE CANDIDATES IN FIELD

Levy Taxes To Pay Tuition of Pupils in District To High Schools.

County Superintendent L. W. Miller has set Saturday, Aug. 4th as the day for holding the special election to select a county school board to govern the non-high school districts of the county.

Election notices have been sent out and posted in the various precincts. All precincts having a four-year high school are omitted from the list. Owing to this the county superintendent has been compelled to make out an entire new list for the election.

The districts omitted are Dixon, South Dixon, Amboy, Lee Center, Franklin Grove and Pawpaw.

Candidates Out.

Three persons have filed as candidates for election to the board: Mrs. Anna Risley, Shaw Station; C. C. Buckaloon, Nelson and David Spencer, Dixon.

When the board is duly elected it will be their duty to levy an assessment on the property of the district and from this money the tuition for students who desire to attend four years of high school will be paid. The directors will also attend to disbursing this tuition on or before the first Monday of May each year. After Sept. 1 of this year neither parents nor school districts will be compelled to pay high school tuition, the new law under which the county

TURNER POINTS OUT GAME LAW DETAILS

GOVERNOR LOWDEN VETOED BILL TO ALLOW FISHING NEAR DAM.

OPEN SEASONS ON GAME

R. C. Turner of Sterling, game and fish warden of this district, was here Thursday evening to note infractions of the game law and issue warnings to sportsmen. There has been a misunderstanding regarding game laws which he hopes to have cleared. The new bill allowing fishing near dams, shooting squirrels in July, etc., passed the state senate but sportsmen failed to note the governor's veto and the game laws for the next two years will be as in the past. As a reminder of the points of the law regarding the open season for various game, a table is given below:

Open Season Starts—
Squirrels, Aug. 1.
Rabbits, Sept. 1.
Mourning doves, Aug. 15.
Prairie chickens, Oct. 2.
Quail, Nov. 17.
Fur bearing animals, Nov. 1.
It is still illegal to catch fish within 100 feet of a dam.

NEITHER ABSENT NOR TARDY

Reports that were slow in coming in to the office of the County Superintendent of Schools, L. W. Miller, show that Glen Goughman of District 85, Queta Cortright of District 30, and Viola, Lena, and Maud Bowers of District 84 were neither absent nor tardy at school during the past year, and that Clara Hess of District 30 has been neither absent nor tardy in the past four years.

Forest Doolen Hopkins, Serial No. 258, Heads List of Lee Co. Registrants Who Must Appear Before Exemption Board

The Lee Co. Board of Exemptions has been instructed to examine from the men drawn in today's national army drawing at Washington, in the order in which they are drawn, twice as many men as is Lee county's quota. The quota of the county, based on nine per cent of its estimated population is about 246, against which credit is given for every man who has enlisted in Co. G. or any other branch of the federal service. Inasmuch as the exact quota of the county has not been announced by Provost Marshal Dickson, it is not known how many men will be examined, but it is not believed the number will exceed 350. The order in which numbers of which there are counterparts in this county were drawn at Washington up to press time, furnished by the Associated Press Leased Wire to the Telegraph office, is:

Red Cross Branch Flourishing

Mrs. Emil Henry and Mrs. H. A. Bernardin of West Brooklyn were in Dixon Thursday afternoon visiting the Red Cross shop to gain information to be put to use in the West Brooklyn shop which is just being started. The West Brooklyn and Compton shops are under one branch of the Lee County chapter of the Red Cross Society which includes a territory of the two villages, West Brooklyn and Compton, and the township of Viola.

This branch already has a membership of 100 and was started but a few weeks ago, and the membership is steadily increasing. Mrs. Jno. Banks is head of the membership committee at Compton and Mrs. H. A. Bernardin of that of West Brooklyn. The officers of the branch are as follows: President, John Banks; treasurer, Charles Bradshaw; secretary, Emil Henry. The board of directors is composed of F. W. Meyers, H. F. Gehant, Mrs. Prosper Gander, William Byrd, Rev. M. B. Krug, Grant Dysart, Mrs. George Weber, William Byrd, Rev. Mr. Kauffman, and Rev. Mr. Biedermann.

The work at the two shops, West Brooklyn and Compton, where the members meet for work upon alternate days, is progressing nicely. Mrs. Edward Henry is in charge of the work at the West Brooklyn Shop and Mrs. Charles Bradshaw of the work at Compton.

A TREATMENT FOR NERVES

Woman Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her.

West Danby, N. Y.—"I have had nervous trouble all my life until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for nerves and for female troubles and it straightened me out in good shape. I work nearly all the time, as we live on a farm and I have four girls. I do all my sewing and other work with their help, so it shows that I stand it real well. I took the Compound when my ten year old daughter came and it helped me a lot. I keep it in the house all the time and recommend it."—Mrs. DEWITT SINCEBAUGH, West Danby, N. Y.

Sleeplessness, nervousness, irritability, backache, headaches, dragging sensations, all point to female derangements which may be overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from choice roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

FRECKLE-FACE

Sun and Wind Will Bring Our Ugly Spots. How to Remove Easily.

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-Face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine as this is the prescription sold under guarantee of money-back if it fails to remove freckles.

Country Club Picnic

One of the most enjoyable of Country Club picnics was held Thursday afternoon and evening at the grounds. Golf and tennis busied the active ones during the afternoon while others who took more account of the weather occupied themselves at cards or Red Cross knitting. One continuous long table upon which the supper was eaten made the picnic a means to greater sociability and greater enjoyment than the group suppers which have been the rule heretofore. Dancing, with Miss Myrtle Rice furnishing music on the piano was the diversion of the majority in the evening.

Mrs. Moses had a guest, Mrs. Coleman, of River Forest, Ill., and L. J. Bertoli, who is entertaining house guests, brought them. They are Mr. John Snider, his daughter, Mrs. Boyd, and her daughter, Katherine, of Cheyenne, Wyoming. Mrs. James Anguish and Mrs. J. J. Hurlburt of Morrison.

Picnicked at Lowell

Rev. and Mrs. W. Krebs and children of Rock Falls, Mrs. Krebs and son Louis of Millard, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Krebs of Chicago Heights, Edward Krebs of Joliet, Wis., Rev. and Mrs. Voelker of Mendota, Rev. and Mrs. Kuethe of Amboy, Rev. and Mrs. E. Rieber and family of Brighton, Iowa, and Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Graf and daughter, Helene, of this city, picnicked at Lowell Park Wednesday.

Returned to Morrison

Mr. John Snyder, Mrs. Boyd and Miss Katherine Boyd and Mrs. Jas. Anguish returned to Morrison last evening after spending the day at the L. J. Bertoli home. Mrs. J. J. Hurlburt, of Morrison, who was with the party, remained for a longer stay.

GIRL INJURED WHEN THROWN FROM HORSE

MISS ELSIE SCHROCK SUFFERED CONCUSSION OF BRAIN LAST NIGHT

OPERATION IS NOT NECESSARY

Miss Elsie Schrock, 1101 North Galena avenue sustained concussion of the brain when she was hurled into the road from the back of a runaway horse near the Will Crawford farm, east of Nachusa at 9 o'clock last night.

Miss Schrock has been visiting for several days on the Harold Emmert farm, near Nachusa, and she was standing in front of the house last night when a neighbor farmer boy came up on horseback and stopped to chat. She asked if she might take a ride, and the boy whose name could not be learned, consented. The animal was without a saddle and after the girl had made a turn or two up and down the road, the animal became frightened from some unknown cause, it is said, and bolted.

Several persons got an automobile and followed the course taken by the young couple. A mile distant the young woman was found lying along the road side in a semi-unconscious state. The physician says he does not believe an operation will be necessary, in order to relieve the brain pressure.

Don't forget the Quarterly Conference to be held on the 21st of July at 2 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. Come if at all possible. Some important business has to be transacted at these conferences, so you ought not to miss it.

When a miser marries he picks out a woman who looks nice in her old clothes.

Many a man who follows a band wouldn't have the nerve to face the music.

Many women are not as fresh as they are painted and lots of men are more so.

Some people are so unimportant that they don't even furnish material for gossip.

When it comes to delivering a speech the expression isn't always successful.

Charity leaves enough sins uncovered to prevent gossip from acquiring anykylosis of the jaw.

If you would outshine your neighbors, acquire a good reputation and then keep it polished.

It may console the self-confessed coward to realize that he is still in a position to admit it.

Ever notice how easy it is for a man to be good-natured when everything is coming his way?

British scientists are studying a mineral found in Wales that emits a faint light in its natural state.

And many a man's reputation for truthfulness goes lame when he begins to say things about himself.

And many a man has been caught at his own fool game by yise people who let him think he was fooling them.

And if you have more money than you know what to do with, any of your fool friends will be glad to advise you.

UNCLE SAM'S THIRTIETH BIRTHDAY

A large amount of good food is wasted when most of the valuable mineral elements, is wasted by ordinary methods of peeling. Baking ing "in the jackets" also means a loss (if the jacket is not eaten) of much of the meat of the potato, as well as the stiffened skin and tasteless potato chips, etc. One excellent way to cook the made by the United States Department of Agriculture for reducing the discarded portion of the potato to a minimum.

FRIDAY

Drop washed potatoes in a vessel of rapidly boiling water and allow them to remain ten minutes. Remove and strip the thin skin as the move and potatoes are peeled after thorough cooking by boiling. The potatoes will still be practically raw and useful in their homes.

GERMANS AND DRIED FRUIT.

Farm and Fireside says:

"We can well profit by the experience of far-sighted Germans against whom the allies and our country are now contending, in the matter of preserving fruit for future use by drying.

Germany has successfully dried fruit and vegetables for years on a very large scale, and the dried products now form a substantial part of the nation's diet. The Germans do not can products as extensively as we do, and the dried food very largely takes the place of the canned fruit and vegetables.

The allies have found that vegetables are a necessity for the men in the trenches, and in the fall of 1915 they contracted for great quantities of the dried vegetables which were purchased and dried in western New York. Last partly because of poor crops in that section, vegetables were purchased and dried in Canada.

Much may depend on our ability to be able to furnish dried vegetables and fruit products to the allies this fall and winter in large quantities. It has been demonstrated that the dried products, even though crudely dried, are acceptable to soldiers and sailors."

ENCOURAGING NEWS FROM THE FARM.

The last government crop report was a real encouragement. It suggested a crop of 3,124,000,000 bushels of corn, which almost equals the crop of 1912, a bumper crop, when the price was about 80c as against nearly $2 now. This enormous increase in the money value of corn will be a powerful stimulus in the west. The wheat crop has also much improved in condition, indicating 22,000,000 bushels more than a year ago. The most sensational gain was in the potato crop, which promises 450,000,000 bushels, compared with 285,000,000 last year. All things considered, the agricultural outlook is good. No serious shortages are in prospect, and high prices amply offset increased cost of production.

PADDING NORTHERN CENSUS.

If the charges that the census of northern states has been padded by the administration at Washington for the purpose of increasing the burden of the northern states and lessening that of the southern states in the matter of furnishing the draft army, have foundation, the administration has furnished cause to the people of this nation for everlasting disgust.

THE DRAFTED ARMY.

If your number has been drawn for the draft army, you have been signally honored and have been singled out for the highest duty that any American can render the nation. You have been chosen as being proper, fit and capable of defending the nation, its honor, its womanhood and its prosperity.

Men from this community have been called to go to France and fight for you. The least you can do is to join the Red Cross at once and help provide for them when they are wounded.

The grand potentate of a Denver lodge confessed in court that he had to hide under a bed when his wife took after him with a broom. So, after all, a title doesn't mean much.

A good many Illinois towns can boast that half of their residents belong to the Red Cross. Dixon can't unless a lot of Dixon people get busy and join.

The total Red Cross membership in Illinois today is 610,415. A good many, but not nearly enough.

It is very bad for the nerves to follow the Russian political situation.

Lee county should give every honor to its drafted soldiers.

Origin of Razors.

It was not until the early part of the eighteenth century that razors were made of steel blades. The men in the middle centuries resorted to pumice stone, with which, to use the words of Mr. Peps, they went through the process of "trimming their skins."

SENATE PASSES FOOD
BILL, WILSON CURBHoover, However, Is Sustained Against Reed's Attack.

Washington, July 20.—A compromise food control bill drafted in bipartisan conferences of leaders was adopted by the senate by a vote of 60 to 16 as a substitute for administration measures. It provides that only feeds, foods and fuels, including kerosene and gasoline shall be placed under government control and administered by a board of food administration of three salaried members in stead of a single individual.

Implied endorsement was given Herbert C. Hoover by the senate when by a viva voce vote it rejected an amendment by Senator Reed of Missouri, to have the food control bill administered by a board of five instead of three members.

FIRST PLAN FOR DRAFT IS ALTERED

New Jersey Boards Upset Long Labor.

DRAWING TAKES HOURS

Mistake of Local Body Imperiled Equitableness of Plan.

FAILED TO SHUFFLE CARDS

Provost Marshal Crowder Receives Word at 4 P. M., Plans Changed and Announced Within One Hour—Under Abandoned Plan Key Number Might Have Caught Greater Proportion of Men from One District Than Another—Drawing Starts at 9:30 A. M. Washington Time.

Washington, July 20.—The draft began at 9:30 a. m.; the scene, Room 226, senate office building.

There are 125 witnesses at the solemn and historic event, the lottery gambling with 10,000,000 lives of America's best manhood and stretching its aim to practically every home and fireside in the Union.

But it is a different draft from the one planned. One state—New Jersey—upset the entire calculations of the government. Widespread error in numbering registration cards by Jersey officials forced the war department late Thursday afternoon to abandon the plan announced earlier in the day and substitute draft in which 10,500 numbers were ordered drawn, requiring ten hours to conclude.

Unruffled by the last-minute overthrow of his carefully prepared arrangements, Provost Marshal General Crowder, disappointed but smiling, made the following official statement.

Crowder Makes Statement. "Advises received by long-distance telephone indicate that in certain areas the boards, in numbering registration cards, have kept the cards segregated by election districts and that serial numbers have been assigned to the whole group for a board while the cards were thus segregated. "If the drawing is concluded as originally planned, in groups of 1,000, the result will be that considerable proportions of certain districts will be brought up for examination together. This results in drafting persons from one locality within the jurisdiction of a board before any person is drawn from another locality within the same jurisdiction.

"For this reason it has been decided to abandon the drawing by thousands and to draw 10,500 numbers, which is in excess of the highest number of cards under the jurisdiction of any one board.

"The only change in the plan will be that there will be one drawing instead of two and that every number drawn will establish the order of every man in the United States whose registration cards bear that number.

"The advantage will be great simplicity. The disadvantage will be that the drawing will require ten hours to complete."

Thus did General Crowder, calm and smiling in his disappointment, abandon a scheme to which he had devoted days of work and nights of study for more than two months.

What Draft Means.

The draft means this: There are 4,557 registration boards each board supervises either a county in the rural sections or a district with an estimated population of 30,000 or cities of 30,000 and over.

The number of registrants in these districts varies. The smallest number in any one district is 187—in an unsettled county in Wyoming. The highest is more than 10,000, in a district of Detroit. Enclosed in gelatine capsules were numbers from 1 to 10,500. Under the revised plan these were placed in a great glass bowl, to be drawn out one at a time. The first number drawn means that every man holding a registration card bearing that number in all of the 4,557 districts will be the first called to serve.

Owing to the difference of registration in the various districts, however, there is this provision:

That if the first number or numbers drawn are higher than the card bearing the highest number in a district the first number to be drawn within the limit of the numbered cards of that district will designate the first man called from the district in question.

For instance, should number 10,000 have been drawn first, it would have affected only a few districts, those having that number of registrants. Then, if number 24 were next drawn, the man holding card number 24 would be the second to be called in the district of more than 10,000, but first in all below 10,000.

Local Board Can Explain Numbers.

Each man registered can learn from the local board of his district the number of registrants in the district. He can determine his liability to call by simply scratching out all numbers higher than the number of registration cards in his district. This will give him his exact position in relation to his own district.

Each district is called upon to supply 200 per cent of its quota. General Crowder announced. Thus, if the registered number in a district is 200 and the quota 20, forty men will be called for examination. This means that the man who stands forty-first on the list will be exempt from the first call. The only provision is that out of the forty men called twenty are found physically fit and free from exemption. Should more men than forty be required in order to secure twenty, the next men in line will be called.

Michigan Among Last.

Preparations for the draft were completed when New York, Pennsylvania and Michigan, the last three states to get ready, announced by telegraph that they were at last prepared.

General Crowder in anticipation of these announcements, had conferred with Secretary Baker, immediately upon the secretary's return from a trip down the Potomac with several of his war chiefs.

Immediately after this conference the general released for publication

Foreign Army Will Invade Chicago Under Own Battle Flag Next Monday

Chicago, July 19.—Next week for-coming to get recruits for the British Foreign Army will invade Chicago under a foreign flag army—British citizens who are residing in Chicago and have not yet will parade Chicago streets. It will be the first time (since the World's Fair, at least, when a few men in the uniforms of other nations were to be seen) that such a thing has ever happened. But as United States troops, the Illinois National Guard, and the sailors from the Great Lakes Training Station will march with and not against the foreigners, Chicago is not worrying noticeably over the "invasion."

The foreigners who are coming are the British of Canada—a whole battalion of them. They will bring a band, and they will parade daily and give concerts each night. They are coming to get recruits for the British Foreign Army—British citizens who are residing in Chicago and have not yet had brought home to them the duty of joining the colors of their own country.

British recruiting has been going on in Chicago for the past ten days, but there is to be a grand drive all of next week to found up the last eligible and able man. It is to be an American-British drive, in fact, for Major F. R. Kenney of the United States Recruiting service is in on the arrangement, fifty-fifty, with the Canadian officers.

The Canadian Highlanders will ar-

Naval Station boys, the latter bringing their big band along. The great day of the week, however, will be Thursday, when there will be a great parade, including about 5,000 of the men who are now National Guardsmen, but who will be sworn in as national troops next Wednesday. On that night there will be a mass meeting at the Coliseum, as which Lord Northcliffe is expected to deliver an address.

The Americans and Canadians expect to make the whole "hands-across-the-border" week a gala one, for in addition to parades and band concerts, Miss Ruth Law, the famous aviatrix, will be doing day and night stunts in her airplane to encourage enlistment.

A call was issued some days ago for candidates for board positions to file. The time is not up but three candidates have already filed petitions, announcing they will make the race. Others are expected to file before the signatures of at least five legal voters. The election will be held in the usual manner and the voting precincts will be announced in due time by Supt. Miller. As far as possible the regular polling places will be used.

SYNOPSIS.

CHAPTER I—On a trip through the English-Cumberland country the breakdown of her automobile forces Louise Maurel, a famous London actress, to spend the night at the farm home of John and Stephen Strangeway.

CHAPTER II—At dinner Louise discovers that the brothers are woman-hating recluses.

CHAPTER III—Next morning she discovers that John, the younger brother, has recently come into a large fortune. In company with him she explores the farm.

CHAPTER IV—In a talk with him she is disturbed by his rigid moral principles and finds that his wealth has created no desire for any other life than the simple one he is leading. She tells him her name and that she is the friend of the prince of Seyre, a rich and disreputable neighbor.

CHAPTER V—Three months later, unable to rid himself of the memory of the actress and in spite of his brother's protests, John goes to London.

CHAPTER VI—He finds Louise engaged in the rehearsal of a new play, meets her friends and is entertained at luncheon with her by the prince.

CHAPTER VII—John drives Sophie home and she gives him friendly advice about love and life in London. The prince and Louise postpone a little journey they had arranged for.

CHAPTER VIII—Louise and her friend Sophie take John out for a Bohemian night, introducing him to London life.

CHAPTER IX—The prince takes John under his social care. Grailot, the playwright, warns Louise that both the prince and John love her and that the prince will be a dangerous enemy to his rival.

CHAPTER X—The prince introduces a relative, Lady Hilda, to John, hinting that she may be of use to him in his "education" of John.

CHAPTER XI—At Seyre House John is introduced to a celebrated dancer, Calavera, who at once starts a violent flirtation with him. At supper the prince tells Calavera that enmity for John has caused him to employ her to ruin him.

CHAPTER XII.

Seyre House was one of the few mansions in London which boasted a banquet hall as well as a picture gallery. Although the long table was laid for forty guests, it still seemed, with its shaded lights and its profusion of flowers, like an oasis of color in the middle of the huge, somberly lighted apartment. Some of the faces of the guests were well-known to John through their published photographs; to others he had been presented by the prince upon their arrival. He was seated between a young American star of musical comedy and a lady who had only recently dropped from the social firmament through the medium of the divorce court, to return to the theater of her earlier fame. Both showed every desire to converse with him between the intervals of eating and drinking, but were constantly brought to a pause by John's lack of knowledge of current topics. After her third glass of champagne, the lady who had recently been a countess announced her intention of taking him under her wing.

"Someone must tell you all about things," she insisted. "What you need is a guide and a chaperon. Won't I do?"

"Perfectly," he agreed. "Fair play!" protested the young lady on his left, whose name was Rosie Sharon. "I spoke to him first!" "Jolly bad luck!" Lord Amerton drawled from the other side of the table. "Neither of you have an earthly. He's booked. Saw him out with her the other evening."

"I shan't eat any more supper," Rosie Sharon pouted, pushing away her plate.

"You ought to have told us about her at once," the lady who had been a countess declared severely.

John preserved his equanimity. "It is to be presumed," he murmured, "that you ladies are both free from any present attachment?"

"Got you there?" Amerton chuckled. "What about Billy?"

Rosie Sharon sighed. "We don't come to the prince's supper parties to remember our ties," she declared. "Let's all go on talking nonsense, please. Even if my heart is broken, I could never resist the prince's pite!"

Apparently everyone was of the same mind. The hum of laughter steadily grew. Under shelter of the fire of conversation, the prince leaned toward his companion and reopened their previous discussion.

"Do you know," he began, "I am inclined to be somewhat disappointed by your lack of enthusiasm in a certain direction?"

"I have disappointed many men in my time," she replied. "Do you doubt my power, now that I have promised to exercise it?"

"Who could?" he replied courteously. "Yet this young man poses, I believe, as something of a St. Anthony. He may give you trouble."

"He is then, what you call a prig?" "A most complete and perfect specimen, even in this nation of prigs!" "All that you tell me," she sighed, "makes the enterprise seem easier. It is, after all, rather like the lioness and the mouse, isn't it?"

The prince made no reply, but upon his lips there lingered a faintly incredulous smile. The woman by his side leaned back in her place. She had the air of accepting the challenge.

"After supper," she said, "we will see."

A single chord of music in a minor asked. "Madeloncelle Calavera has asked me to get her some champagne," he answered.

The prince smiled. "I will see that it is sent to her at once," he promised. "You are in my sanctum, are you not? You can pursue your tete-a-tete there without interruption. You are very much envied."

"Madeloncelle Calavera is there," John replied. As for me, I am afraid I shall have to go now."

The smile faded from the prince's lips. His eyebrows came slowly together.

"You are leaving?" he repeated. "I must!" John insisted. "I can't help it. Forgive my behaving like a boor, but I must go. Good night!"

The prince stretched out his hand, but he was too late.

John found himself, after a few minutes' hurried walking, in Piccadilly. He turned abruptly down Duke street and made his way to St. James'.

"Go Quickly, and Come Back Quickly. I Wait for You."

park. From here he walked slowly eastward. When he reached the Strand, however, the storm in his soul was still unabated. He turned away from the Milan. The turmoil of his passions drove him to the thoughts of flight. Half an hour later he entered St. Pancras station.

"What time is the next train north to Kendal or Carlisle?" he inquired.

The porter stared at him. John's evening clothes were spattered with mud, the raindrops were glistening on his coat and face, and his silk hat was ruined. It was not only his clothes, however, which attracted the man's attention. There was the strained look of a fugitive in John's face, a fugitive flying from some threatened fate.

"The newspaper train at five thirty is the earliest, sir," he said. "I don't know whether you can get to Kendal by it, but it stops at Carlisle."

John looked at the clock. There was an hour to wait. He wandered about the station, gloomy, chill, deserted. The place sickened him, and he strolled out into the streets again. By chance he left the station by the same exit as on the day of his arrival in London. He stopped short.

How could he have forgotten, even for a moment? This was not the world which he had come to discover. This was just some plague-spot upon which he had stumbled. Through the murky dawn and across the ugly streets he looked into Louise's drawing-room. She would be there waiting for him on the morrow!

Louise! The thought of her was like a sweet, purifying stimulant. He felt the throbbing of his nerves soothed. He felt himself growing calm. The terror of the last few hours was like a nightmare which had passed. He summoned a taxicab and was driven to the Milan. His wanderings for the night were over.

Overheated Air.

A rise of temperature in the surrounding air diminishes the amount of oxygen consumed and the amount of dioxide discharged. A fall of temperature has the opposite effect. In addition, the overheated air forms a hot jacket around the body, which prevents the radiation of heat necessary to keep the body in a healthy condition. With a sedentary occupation a temperature of from 65 to 70 should be maintained for comfort and health.

UNCLE DIED

Louis Atkins received word Wednesday of the death of his mother's brother, Delos Tillman, of Earlville. A BEVERAGE

Watch !!

Look for this Fox on each crown top

For some years, various and sundry concerns have been making beverages which are grouped under the general description of "near-beer." Then came Bevo—a cereal beverage, not a "near-beer," but offered purely for what it is—a delightful, wholesome and nutritious drink. Bevo met with instant and complete success. A whirlwind success.

Owing to Bevo's popularity, some beverages are now being offered in a way to make the appearance of the package look as much like the Bevo bottle as possible. The intention is obvious. But you don't taste the shape of a bottle—it's the flavor of the contents of the bottle that you must depend upon for enjoyment.

Then beware of impersonators—don't be satisfied to try to identify Bevo by the shape of the bottle alone—

Look !!

There are these certain identification marks that are your protection against imitations. Not just imitations of the product, remember—but those more insinuating imitations which try to deceive you by putting an old failure into a bottle similar to a new success. So look for these unmistakable marks of the genuine Bevo—demand that the bottle be opened in front of you, then—

Look for the Seal
See that it is unbroken covering the Crown Top
Look at the Crown Top and see that it bears the Fox
Be sure the Bottle bears this label

Listen!

Bevo is a pure drink. This means more than that it contains pure ingredients—it means that though you might often well be afraid of possible germs in milk or water, Bevo, being a pasteurized product in sterilized bottles, is absolutely free from bacteria. Bevo is a nutritive beverage—the fine cereals from which it is made give it this quality. Bevo is a delightful and refreshing soft drink—unlike any you have ever tasted—indeed a Triumph in Soft Drinks. You can't get these good qualities in anything but Bevo—demand the genuine.

You will find Bevo at inns, cafeterias, restaurants, groceries, department and drug stores, soda fountains, dining cars, steamships, canneries, soldiers' homes, navy, and other places where refreshing beverages are sold. Your grocer will supply you by the case. Bevo is sold in bottles only—and is bottled exclusively by

PEACE FAVORED BY REICHSTAG

Majority Lines up Behind Move to End War.

HAS 221 OF THE 397 VOTES

Amsterdam, July 20.—The Berlin Tageblatt says the committee of the majority parties in the reichstag have unanimously decided to move the peace resolution. Previously the committee was divided, two members of the Center and one Liberal disagreeing with the majority. The Tageblatt says that in the reichstag 221 deputies will vote for the peace resolution. The total membership of the reichstag is 397.

May Ask All Nations Disarm. Paris, July 20.—A dispatch to the Temps from Geneva says the German government, according to reliable information, meditates the dramatic proposal to its enemies and to the world of a complete disarmament, except for sufficient forces to maintain compulsory peace by compulsory arbitration.

The German government, says the Temps, "while allowing the solution of the internal crisis to appear as a success for the pan-Germans, has in view a maneuver of a quite different aspect. The bellicose declarations that resound, and will perhaps continue in Berlin, will be nothing but the prologue, designed to represent Germany as invincible. Afterward, perhaps sooner than is expected, will come the theatrical initiative in which Germany will show a disposition to disarm."

Redfield Says Localities Near Munition Plants Draw Many Men. Washington, July 20.—In response to Senator Brandegee's resolution calling for an explanation of the census bureau's population estimates to establish quotas for the army draft, Secretary Redfield submitted a report to the senate showing that the estimates were based upon actual registration figures in each state and subdivision. He pointed out that the large estimates for certain localities, especially industrial centers, were explained by the abnormal gathering of men of draft age at those places for work in munition plants.

The resolution was introduced after several senators had charged that the population of northern cities had been "padded" and the southern estimates correspondingly reduced.

his plan for the draft, which completed the drawing of ten master numbers and 1,000 key numbers, a process which would have required, but an hour and which would have fairly and squarely determined the liability of every registered man to service.

The plan was telegraphed all over the country and printed in afternoon newspapers. General Crowder then announced that the hour for the draft had been definitely set for 9:30 and invited newspaper men who were assigned to report the event to attend the trial drawing in his office at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, so that they then might be thoroughly familiarized with every detail of the plan.

New Jersey Spoils It All.

It was just about 4 o'clock that the telephone on General Crowder's desk rang sharply and "Central" told him there was a long-distance call from Trenton for him.

Just what words passed over the wire, only two men—and possibly "Central"—know. One was General Crowder. He would not tell who the other was. Indeed, he would not even tell the name of the state which had upset the draft plan. Secretary Baker did that later.

But as a result of that message
there was a hurried call over the telephone for Secretary Baker. General Crowder informed him of the news.
It was that several of the Jersey boards, each one of which included several election districts, instead of shuffling the registration cards of all the districts together before placing the "red ink numbers" on them, had taken whole districts by themselves and numbered the cards in order, right down the line.

This meant that should the cards of a certain district be in the 1,000's, while the ones of another district under the same board ran over into the 2,000's, all the men holding the 1,000 cards would be ordered out first should that number be drawn first in the pulling of the 10 master numbers at Washington. In other words, the whole district would be called first while the next district, with the cards numbered 2,000, would escape in a body.

The whole "fair deal" aspect of the draft would be destroyed; there would follow charges of unfairness which would be a national scandal and the whole drawing might be invalidated—after hundreds of thousands of homes had been caused suffering by the threatening departure of a member of the family.

Crowder Shifts Plan Quickly.

As soon as Secretary Baker had heard the news from General Crowder, he called the newspaper men in the state, war and navy buildings and told them of the developments. He stated, however, that General Crowder had told him he would not let this interfere with the draft and that a substitute plan would be announced at five o'clock.

When that hour came, General Crowder was ready and so was the plan. It was the original plan, simplified as to figures, but made more arduous physically. General Crowder, after a short talk with his aides, had quickly decided to abandon his "master numbers" and instead have a drawing of 10,500 straight numbers.

Draft Big Proposition.

The draft is one of the most difficult proposition to handle that telegraph companies or press associations have ever faced. No less than 32,000 words are required to transmit the numbers completely and safely, so as to prevent any chance of error. A double check is made on each number.

Each exemption board has its own list of registrants and the numbers will be compared with these in each city. In this way the names of the men drafted will be made known. No names will be sent from Washington.

Immediately after the completion of the drawing it was arranged for General Crowder's office to begin the work of informing each state of the numbers drawn. The states then are to notify the local boards and the local boards in turn will notify the men.
This will require in all about four days.

The first call will be for 1,374,000 men—in other words, 200 per cent of the quotas. The war department hopes but not more than 50 per cent of the men called will fail to qualify. This would leave the first army of 687,000.

German's Score Gains.

London, July 20.—German troops began an offensive against the French in the west. There was desperate fighting in the west. Germans around St. Quentin scored gains on a front of two-thirds of a mile. The crown prince also won a moderate success in clashes north of the Aisne and in the Avacourt wood in the Verdun sector.

Rumor Kaiser Killed Two Americans.

London, July 20.—The Reuter Amsterdam correspondent sends the following: "According to information available here, which must, however, be treated with necessary reserve, two Americans were shot recently on the charge of having attempted to take the German emperor's life."

Woman Relies on Common Law Marriage Plea.

EDWARDSVILLE, ILL., July 20.
Disposition of the most complicated divorce suit of the Madison county circuit court in Edwardsville was deferred by Judge Louis Bernreuter and probably will not be acted upon until the October term. It is the suit of Mrs. Mary Young of Madison against Charles R. Young, proprietor of a resort west of Granite City.

Mrs. Young claims a common law marriage was entered into in St. Louis in March, 1909. She says they lived together until June, 1912. Young charges she formerly was married to John Getz, who was seen in Venice during April, 1917. Mrs. Young admits the marriage, but says Getz left home three days after the wedding on account of his health and she had not seen him since. She considered him dead.

Young is charged with marrying another woman who was not in court at the hearings. Mrs. Young says her husband owns property worth $50, 000 and she wants a share in it for work in accumulating the holdings.

BATHING SUIT POLICE CLEW

Father of Young Joyrider Advertises for Article He Thought Stolen.

DANVILLE, ILL., July 20.
The finding of a silk bathing suit and an imported blanket in the bottom of an automobile which had been used by Joyriders in Danville led to the arrest of two prominent young Danville boys when Billy Cannon and John Raimier were taken into custody. Ed Raimier, father of one, had advertised in a local paper offering a reward for the return of the bathing suit and blanket, which had been reported to him as lost. It is presumed the boys used the car to go to a bathing beach and in returning it to a prominent corner where it could be "found" by the police forgot to remove the blanket and suit.

Suspect Rail Carelessness.

PEORIA, ILL., July 20.

Switchmen were summoned by Coroner Elliott at Peoria in an effort to fix the blame for an open switch that caused the death of two men in the wreck of the Rock Island train. Evidence already obtained indicates that the crew of a switch engine which took a siding to let the passenger train pass neglected to close the switch.

CARRONDALE, ILL., July 20.

sidering the acreage.
